Allowable Subject Matter

1. Applicant's amendment to the claims is deemed to overcome the outstanding office action.

Claims 1-12 are allowable.

2. The following is an examiner's statement of reasons for allowance:

The prior art fails to show the apparatus comprising the first membrane initially resisting movement of the depressible member without the second membrane resisting movement of the depressible member, and the first membrane resisting movement of the depressible member and the first membrane resisting movement of the depressible member simultaneously with the second membrane, the first and second membranes providing a single tactile sensation to the operator due to a reduction in the combined return forces applied to the depressible member by the first and second membranes after the first and second membranes resist movement of the depressible member simultaneously, the first and second membranes comprising a single electrical switch as the second membrane contacts a contact member in the actuated condition.

Any comments considered necessary by applicant must be submitted no later than the payment of the issue fee and, to avoid processing delays, should preferably accompany the issue fee. Such submissions should be clearly labeled "Comments on Statement of Reasons for Allowance."
